Senior Class Will

We, the senior class of 1955, of the city of Gaylord, county of Smith, and the state of Kansas, being of sound mind and memory do hereby make, publish and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

We, as a class, bequeath our possessions as follows: To the junior class we will our ability to stay out of the office.

To the sophomore class we will our charms of this year's seniors.

To the freshmen class we will our eagerness and intelligence.

To the teachers we will the peace they will obtain as we pass out of the halls of G. H. S.

We, as individual members of the senior class, will our most personal and treasured belongings and possessions to wit:

I, Roger Nichols, will my Ford to anyone who has a good safety belt.

I, Marvin Frutiger, will my trombone to Kendall Nichols providing he plays it as I have.

I, Arthur Kuhlman, will my ability to get F's and still pass to Henry Endsley providing he doesn't flunk.

I, Donald Martin, will my wrecked Plymouth to George Campbell providing he can herd it as I have.

I, Melva Schultz, will my ability to keep quiet to anyone who can use it.

I, Don Dannenberg, will my sportsmanship to Eldon Dohe.

I, Lucille Koch, will my ability to go steady to my sister, Ila.

I, Betty Henning, will my ability to keep the annual money straight to next year's business manager.

I, Connie Miller, will my ability to skip school to Ann Freeborn.

I, Delmer Meyer, will my brains to Henry Endsley.

I, Nadine Frank, will my red hair to Mary Jane Henning.

I, Arlene Sasse, will my worn out books to next year's seniors.

I, Loretta Wilson, will my ability to cheerlead to next year's cheerleaders.

It is our will and desire that the said executor Mr. Richard Clearman, our class sponsor, will carry out these, our last wishes, without fault or fail.

Class History

On September 6, 1951, 15 green but eager freshmen entered the halls of Gaylord high school ready to receive their high school education. Although the upperclassmen had few hopes for them, they managed to survive the initiation and also had two successful class parties. The class president was Delmer Meyer with Mrs. Cole as sponsor.

The next year found them one step away from upperclassmen, but still struggling hard. Gary Roe was elected president; Loretta Wilson, vice president; and Roger Nichols, secretary and treasurer. This year they had the pleasure of having Mrs. Conrad as their sponsor. The class lost one member, Helen Manion, who got married, but gained another when Connie Miller came from Colorado, making the class again fifteen.

At last 1953; they became upperclassmen. They lost one member at the beginning of the year, Shirley Bell, who quit school to get married. They honored the seniors with a beautiful banquet in the spring, using "Arctic Dreamland" as the theme. They also gave a play, "Hillbilly Courtship," November 3, under direction of Francis Roe, who was their sponsor. Class officers for the junior year were: president, Don Dannenberg; vice president, Lucille Koch; secretary and treasurer, Gary Roe. One of the three cheerleaders came from this class, Connie Miller.

As to the last year, it was busiest year of all. At the beginning of the year they were engaged in choosing their announcements, and cards, and in November they had their pictures taken. This year the officers were: president, Don Dannenberg; vice president, Lucille Koch; secretary and treasurer, Arlene Sasse; and sponsor, Richard Clearman.

One member of the senior class, Gary Roe, moved to Downs. One cheerleader came from this class, Loretta Wilson. In the spring they presented a class play. The last of their exciting days in the halls of old GHS was the junior senior banquet which was toward the end of the school year.

The senior class members would like to pay their respects to John E. Cole for his attentive sponsorship in guiding them through their four years of GHS.

The Gaylord Y-Teen Club was organized with 20 members for the year. In the fall the YWCA and the Y-Teen Club held a joint recognition service for the new members. The Y-Teens sent 10 girls to the Y-Teen Conference at Phillipsburg October 14. World Week of Prayer was observed November 14-20. The Y-Teen girls gave a one act play for an assembly program at Christmas and also went caroling and delivered cheer boxes. There were two parties during the year, one at Christmas to exchange gifts and one at Valentines Day. The year was climaxed with the girls entertaining their mothers.
